FLEET STARTS FOR HOME

Steams Away From Historical Rock of Gibraltar.

DUE NOTED ANNIVERSARY

Voyage Has Been Noted With Greatest Interest by Every Foreign Power Visited, and Both Officers and Men Warmly Welcomed Everywhere.

Gibraltar, Feb. 6.—The American battleship fleet steamed away, homeward bound, at 11 o'clock this morning.

The sixteen vessels, which are due to arrive at Hampton Roads, Va., Feb.
22, left that port for their famous cruise around the world Dec. 16, 1907, and on arrival in that harbor on Washington's birthday the monster ships will have been gone one year and sixty-eight days.

No accident marked the journey of the mightiest fleet that ever made such a long voyage. The cruise has been an unqualified success.

The trip has been watched with greatest interest by all foreign powers, and wherever the vessels called, in South America, Australia, Japan, China, Ceylon, Egypt and ports of the Mediterranean, its officers and men have been given a hearty official and private welcome.

The fleet left Hampton Roads under command of Admiral Evans, who conducted it as far as San Francisco. Admiral Thomas then took command, but he was succeeded on May 15 by Admiral Sperry.

Rear Admiral Arnold's third squadron of the Atlantic fleet, consisting of the battleships Maine, Mississippi, New Hampshire and Idaho and the scout cruisers Chester, Birmingham and Salem, will meet Admiral Sperry's fleet in the Atlantic about 1,000 miles from the American coast, and then with Admiral Arnold's ships as an escort the world touring vessels will proceed towards Hampton Roads, where they will be received by President Roosevelt and other prominent persons.

QUALTROUGH GUILTY.

This is the Verdict of Courtmartial and Suspended Six Months.

Gibraltar, Feb. 6.—Captain Edward Qualtrough of the battleship Georgia has been found guilty by the courtmartial of being intoxicated while on duty and of conduct prejudicial to the good of the navy. He has been suspended from duty for six months with the additional punishment of a loss of ten numbers in rank. Rear Admiral Sperry approved the finding of the courtmartial, but the secretary of the navy must take official action on the recommendation for loss of numbers.

Captain Qualtrough has been detached from the fleet and ordered home. He goes as a passenger on the Georgia. Lieutenant Commander Klein, who was placed in command of the Georgia, will continue in command on the homeward trip.

BOOKER WASHINGTON ESSAY.

These Instructions in Textbook Cause a Most Vigorous Protest.

New Orleans, Feb. 6.—Because one of the textbooks submitted for use in the schools of Louisiana contains directions to the pupils to write an essay on Booker Washington, it is declared the book will get into schools only over the vigorous protests of the Confederate bodies in Louisiana.
General Lewis Gulon, chairman of the Confederate Veterans, is now engaged in his quadrennial examinations to discover whether there are reflections on the south or its leaders or any matter objectionable to southern sentiment in the books used or offered for use in the public schools of Louisiana. He noted the Booker Washington reference.

Dreadful Deed of Child.

Statesboro, Ga., Feb. 6.—Mrs. Leander tied her little child in a chair before a fire. While she was absent from the room another child set fire to the tied child's clothing. It was burned to death before the mother returned.

Anti-Alien Land Bill Passes.

Carson, Nev., Feb. 6.—The assembly assembly passed the Giffon anti-alien land bill, which provides that no Asiatics, including the Japanese, shall own land or land mortgages in the state.

FAST IMPROVEMENTS.

Southern Pacific Railway Is to Expend Immense Sum.

San Francisco, Feb. 6.—The Southern Pacific Railway company has just established at Bowman, a few miles from Auburn, this state, the base from which it will construct improvements to its right of way over the Sierra Nevada mountains, costing $25,000,000.

The contemplated improvements will give the company two lines from Roseville to Truckee and lower the grade by 1,000 feet the present line traversed. Among great engineering feats involved is the construction of a tunnel six miles in length. Four years will be allowed for the completion of the tunnel.

RELEASE TOO LATE.

Jerks Foot From Frog, but Killed Before Getting Off Track.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Held prisoner and helpless, Charles Thompson gazed in agony upon the rear light of a freight train which was backing down to grind him to death between the wheels and the rail.

The train moved slowly and horror made the man almost powerless to struggle in an effort to extricate his left foot from the switchfrog in which it had caught. At last the train was upon him. With a frantic effort his foot was released, but too late. He was crushed to death before he could crawl from the track.

ONE DOZEN DEATHS.

Recent Storms in Three States Worst
For a Number of Years.

Atlanta, Feb. 6.—The storm which passed over Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia Friday, in numerous sections reaching the proportions of a tornado, was probably the most disastrous to life and property of any of recent years in this section. Reports received tell of the deaths of more than one dozen persons, the fatal injuring of almost as many more and serious injury to others in the states named.

EIGHT TO BE EXECUTED.

Friday, March 5, Will Be Hangman's Day in Pelican State.

Baton Rouge, Feb. 6.—Friday, March 5, will be hangman's day in Louisiana.
Eight men—the largest number to be executed on one day in the criminal records of Louisiana for many years past—will be hanged at that time unless their execution is stayed, which now seems improbable.

Pistol Law Unconstitutional.

Montgomery, Feb. 6.—The Alabama law, which prohibits the carrying of a pistol less than twenty-four inches in length, was declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court, the opinion reversing a recent opinion delivered by the same court. The law applied to officers of the law as well as to civilians. The decision declaring the law null and void was rendered in the case of Lon Taylor, a constable, who had been found guilty of carrying an unlawful weapon.

Dismissed in Disgrace.

Pekin, Feb. 6.—Chen Pi, president of the board of communications, and three under secretaries of the board have been dismissed in disgrace. Recent dispatches from Pekin set forth that Chen Pi had been impeached on charges of corruption. Chen Pi is the second high official to be dismissed from office since the death of the emperor and dowager empress of China last November.

Yellow Fever and Smallpox.

City of Mexico, Feb. 6.—Two additional cases of yellow fever are reported from Merida, Yucatan, making three cases in all.

Quarantine has been established against boats arriving at Mexican ports from Quintana Roo, Mex., where smallpox is raging. A similar order has gone into effect in regard to Guatemala, where an epidemic of smallpox prevails.

Several to Take Away Horses.

New Orleans, Feb. 6.—With the fate of horse racing in Louisiana hanging in the balance owners of horses which have been brought here for the Superior meet have in several instances decided not to await the ultimate outcome of the test now engaging attention of the courts. The Burton, Burchett, Serrino and Pendergrast stables are to be transferred to Tampa.

KATY RAILWAY SUED.

Twenty-Six Alleged Failures to Maintain Schedules.

Austin, Feb. 6.—The attorney general's department on behalf of the state filed suit in the Twenty-sixth district court against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway for penalties of $5,000 for each day, aggregating $130,000, for alleged violation of law and commission's rules requiring railroads to run trains on schedule time. It is charged that the Katy on twenty-six different occasions ran behind schedule time on its trains running in and out of Hillsboro.

The railroad commission gave notice that it will take up and consider on March 9 regulation of party rates, proposed for parties of not less than

R. V. DAVIDSON.

14 persons, all on one ticket, one and one-half cents per mile per capita. No baggage to be checked on tickets sold at rate given herein.

Nearly all legislators went to Houston and Galveston Saturday as the guests of those cities.

Governor Campbell denies that he will soon make addresses in North Texas cities. He says he is too busy.

Federal Judge Maxey sustained the United States commissioner at El Paso in holding that Pablo Yordi, charged with embezzling money from Mexican banks, shall be delivered to Mexican authorities for trial. Notice of appeal to the federal supreme court was given.

THREE HUNDRED ATTEND.

Senators, Representatives and Others
Elegantly Entertained at Houston.

Houston, Feb. 6.—A special Pullman train arrived from Austin Saturday morning with 300 guests—state senators, representatives, officials and families. A large reception committee met them. The guests were taken in launches down the ship canal to the San Jacinto battle field, where Mayor Rice, Judge Kittrell and Attorney General Davidson delivered addresses.

A reception took place at night, at the Rice hotel, on the site of the first state capitol.

Pleads Guilty to Rebating.

Little Rock, Feb. 6.—Wilbur Smith, former traffic manager of the Iron Mountain railroad, now traffic manager of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis, entered a plea of guilty of granting a rebate to T. H.
Bunch at Little Rock in 1906 on one of 59 counts in an indictment in the federal court. He was fined $2,500 and costs.

Arrives to Construct Reservoir.

Denison, Feb. 6.—Hiram Phillips, a St. Louis hydraulic engineer, is here to construct the waterworks reservoir.
When constructed the dam will impound 1,342,000,000 gallons of water.
The daily inflow will be 2,000,000 gallons. It will be the largest fresh water supply basin in Texas.

Fine and Prison Sentence.

New Orleans, Feb. 6.—Mark Boasberg was declared guilty of violating the so-called Locke anti-racing law at the Suburban race track on Jan. 22 and sentenced to pay of $350 and serve seven months in the parish prison by Judge Prentice Edgington in the district court of Jefferson parish.

Twenty Thousand Acres Sold.

Beaumont, Feb. 6.—Henry Carter has sold to G. C. Munroe of Texarkana 20,000 acres of land in this section for $300,000. It will be subdivided and sold to immigrants from the earthquake district of Italy. Rice and tobacco are to be cultivated.

Arises From Table, Falls Dead.

Burnet, Tex., Feb. 6.—Just as L. M.
Hennessey, eighty years old, a civil war veteran and prominent citizen, arose from the breakfast table at his home, eight miles from Burnet, Saturday morning, he fell dead.

Mose Watson Shot to Death.

El Paso, Feb. 6.—Mose Watson, who had just arrived from Amarillo to open a saloon, was shot to death in the Cozy Corner saloon. J. W. Childress, proprietor of the Cozy Corner, was arrested.

Drops Dead After Funeral.

Reading, Pa., Feb. 6.—Just after returning from conducting a funeral Rev.
J. P. Stein fell dead.

ALLISON REMEMBERED.

Senate Pays Honor to the Memory of Deceased Leader.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The senate transacted no public business Saturday, its time being devoted to eulogies of the career of the late William Boyd Allison, senator from Iowa, who died Aug. 4, 1908.

An unusual note of feeling ran through the addresses. They had little of the perfunctory nature generally marking the obituary exercises in the senate, as Senator Allison's long service in the upper national house and the qualities of his character commanded the respect of his colleagues.
The principal address was made by Senator Dolliver of Iowa.

New Railroad Company.

Jennings, La., Feb. 6.—A new railroad company has been chartered with capital stock of $500,000 to be known as the Lake Arthur, Jennings and Northern Railway company. The headquarters are to be at Jennings. The terminus will be at Lake Arthur, ten miles south of here, and the road will run north, possibly to some point on the Colorado Southern. W. B. Conover of Lake Arthur is the president.

Appearance Date Set.

Muskogee, Feb. 6.—Judge Campbell in the United States district court set Feb. 13 as the day for Governor Haskell and the six other prominent Oklahoma men under indictment for alleged fraud in connection with the Muskogee town lot case to appear in court and plead to the charges.

Child's Hand Amputated.

Beaver, Okla., Feb. 6.—A little daughter of John Clark, who resides southeast of Elmwood, had her hand so badly crushed by machinery as to necessitate amputation.

Reset For March 1.

Muskogee, Feb. 6.—Before leaving for Guthrie Governor Haskell protested to United States Attorney Gregg against his hearing on Feb. 13 of the case in which he is charged with conspiracy in townsites frauds. He declared he needed more time. The case was reset for March 1 at Vinita.

Flood Situation Serious.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Reports of loss of life continue to come in from the flooded districts. A hurricane in the Rhine valley devastated several buildings. Lower sections of Frankfort-on-the-Main are under water. The Danube is high. Several villages have been cut off from outside communication.

Initial Quarterly Dividend.

New York, Feb. 6.—Directors of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Railway company declared an initial quarterly dividend of 1 per cent on the stock of that company.

Seriously Shot.

Austin, Feb. 6.—Following the shooting in the lungs of Frank Ross T. P.
Stuckert was arrested.

ANNOUNCEMENT COLUMN.

The Eagle is authorized to announce the following candidates subject to the action of the City Democratic primary to be held March 1st, 1909:

For City Marshal
C. C. SHELburne.
T. P. BOYETT.

For City Secretary
JOHN B. HINES.

BRYAN, TEXAS, FEBRUARY 7, 1909.

The Velasco Courier chortles: "Balm weather again, and the ordinary costume—shirt-sleeves and a smile prevails." It can't be true; the modest ladies of Velasco wouldn't stand for it.

Rockdale has appointed a committee of six influential citizens to endeavor to induce the penitentiary board to locate at that place the cotton mill for the manufacture of cotton bagging, rope, twine, etc., which the state will build and operate with convict labor.

The proposition to establish schools for incorrigibles, now before the legislature, deserves careful attention. Most children respond to moral influences readily and those who can be controlled only by the fear of physical punishment should be segregated because of their corrupting influence.

Mr. W. W. Campbell, United States demonstration farmer with headquarters at Giddings, in conversation with the editor of the Caldwell News-Chronicle a few days ago said that the land over this district is becoming alarmingly dry, so much so, in fact, that plowing has for some time been at a standstill, and that when rain does come many farmers are likely to make the mistake of plowing the moisture out of the ground. This, he said, was done by breaking land too soon after a rain and then allowing it to lay instead of keeping it stirred.

There are well-meaning, sincere people who cannot understand why anybody should be unwilling to accept their standard of religion and morality; in fact, they believe all who refuse to agree with them are men of corrupt minds, instigated by the devil. Of course, such people believe it to be their duty to get their opinions enacted into law, if possible, and to force those who are unwilling to obey the law. They cannot realize that "a man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still," nor that enforced acquiescence makes hypocrites.

FADS AND FASHIONS.

New York, Feb. 6.—The ruling style of fashion seems to be in a state of transition at the present moment. A new style will be evolved, perhaps even more than one, but what their particular character will be it is impossible to predict with any degree of certainty at this moment. The dress ideas of the moment are still carried out in two different types of gowns. One is the ultra-clinging, close-fitting princess or semi-princess dress, the other the draped dress made in soft, limp, bodyless materials. The one-piece gown is still the favorite, although the two-piece and combination gown is quite popular.

While the scanty plain skirt is the most conspicuous model seen in smart winter gowns, other skirts are in evidence among the most recently made tailormades. One is the plaited nine-gore skirt, for the joy of women who have waited anxiously for its return. This new skirt has no plaits at the top and is stitched to the knees. Below that point the plaits are left free. Another new skirt has five, seven or nine gores, but has plaited panels set in the side seams.

Only a few days ago word came from Paris that the kilted skirt and over-drapery were looked upon there with favor. A model showing such a skirt found its way across the ocean and was shown in one of the fashionable shops on Broadway. It had an old-fashioned tight fitting coat, the skirt of which ended some six inches above the knees. In front it was cut away, and the sleeves were tight without the slightest fullness at the armhole.

Marked attention is given to plain tailored effects and the Spring models exhibited in the shops have considerably less trimming than those of the past winter. The popularity of the little demi-costume has brought about the vogue of the separate coat. There are stoles and hoods, all of which follow the outline of the academic periods.

Extremely long tassels play a conspicuous part in their trimming and they are fashioned from chenille and knotted silk threads. This style is unquestionably elegant and will continue in favor throughout the Spring and Summer.

The majority of the women prefer unobtrusive styles, something that they do not get tired of too easily, and it is for this reason that the semi-fitted garments have become popular. They hang in soft, graceful folds, seeming to outline more than to follow the lines of the figure.

This holds good in both dresses and coats. They are cut so as to give a slender effect at the hips and long, straight lines at the back. One-piece dresses are the accepted models of the season and the styles are varied sufficiently to give scope to individual taste. The princess and empire waist treatments seem to be the most popular and are widely accepted for the reason that they are becoming to the majority of the women. But only the slender and well shaped women will dare to wear the extreme Directoire or the unmodified Empire gown.

The two-piece dress, known as the Empire-Directoire is an excellent compromise and promises to remain in vogue through the Spring and Summer. These gowns have the waist copied after the Empire idea and the skirt after the Directoire. Then there are three-piece suits, the newest of which are made with separate guimpes in place of the separate waist, the latter being joined to the skirt at the high waistline. An unusually pretty dress of this pattern was of cashmere of dark gray, trimmed with Bengaline in connection with a coat of Bengaline. The separate guimpe was of net tucked and braided.

All toilettes of dress and of ceremony are of silken tissues nowadays. Silk, rather left in the background for several years, is pursued with a lively ardor. In plain silks and satins, in otoman, with coarse or fine cords, crepes and meteors, to say nothing of the silk-faced satin cloth and silk cashmere, they present a wonderful variety from which to select material for a costume. The draping, wrinkling folds of these soft, thick stuffs, in their colors, show changing lights like those of precious stones, or reflect the metallic glow of silver, gold or bronze.

Fashion has declared, emphatically in favor of the long sleeve and where the short sleeve is used at all in shirt waists during the coming season, it will be in a three-quarter length and on the distinctly "warm weather" waist. Nothing is more comfortable than a free fore arm for any kind of athletics or housework, and for those two purposes the short sleeve will never quite die out. But in the really smart, well tailored shirtwaists one will rarely see anything but the long sleeve, and the plainer the better.

There is an excellent sleeve that is being put in the best waists just now, a sort of leg-o-mutton shirtwaist sleeve that fits into the cuff without any fullness at all. Sometimes it is used with a rather severe type of waist, six tucks on each shoulder in front and a two piece yoke in back. One in white linen has the edges of the center front plait bound with pink linen, and just inside the binding narrow rows of feather stitching done in the same color.

Clever women have found out that a separate tunic, made of another material than the gown and draped over it, is an excellent method of altering an old fashioned frock. There are some frocks that are too short in the skirts to be lifted up even for two inches on the bodice to give the Empire effect, and that are too much out of style to wear as they are. If the skirt and bodice are put together by their lining and two or three folds of self-colored material neatly draped around the waist-line in order to make it invisible, the foundation work is finished. The tunic may be made of net, chiffon cloth, bands of net and embroidered satin, or all-over lace, edged with fur of gold galloon. This is cut with a seam down the middle of the back and neatly draped three inches above the waistline, headed with folds of the material or a piece of the trimming used elsewhere. This tunic drops from bust to knees and gives an exact line that it needs this winter on smart frocks.

On some of the latest imported gowns the waist is lengthened, not by dipping the encircling band or girde, but by the actual fitting and placing of the natural line. And while it is a far cry to the hourglass figure, waists are really more tapering. The trimmings are still arranged for the broad, flat effect and must not, under any conditions, slope in at the waist and then out again, but less width will be required for style.

Coiffures are becoming less voluminous and more natural. Some of the false puffs are being put aside and the hair arranged more closely to accommodate the new spring hats, which will not need the abundance of hair, which was almost necessary to prop up the drooping winter hats. Gauze, silver and gold bands are now drawn quite closely over the hair to hold it down.

Scintillations From Texas Sanctums.

If you want to see what makes Bell county great, drive over the country and take note of the plows that are running.—Temple Tribune.

It is told of one of the Minnesota Swedes who are now in this section that after buying a piece of land and paying for it he refused a deed, and said that he wanted a mortgage, explaining that he bought a piece of land once and had a deed, but another fellow came along with a mortgage and took it away from him.—Beaumont Enterprise.

Worry, says a Chicago educator, has killed more men than all the diseases put together, and then he goes on to prove his point by asserting that the death rate among men is about twenty to the thousand, while it is but seventeen to the thousand among women; adding that the difference in favor of the gentler sex is because women never worry, they fret.—Galveston Tribune.

There has not been a day the past season but that spot cotton was worth more in Houston and Galveston than in New Orleans, and yet we are blandly told by our cotton gambling friends that the anti-bucket shop law of Texas is to blame for the low price of cotton.—Co-operator.

The blanket anti-Sunday law bill got a cold reception by the legislative committee. You will never be able to legislate all people into being good or into even observing the Sabbath according to your opinion. This is a case where moral suasion will have to be depended upon to a large measure. People differ as to what constitutes a violation of Sunday, always have and always will. But every man has the right to observe the day as becomes his desires, so long as he does not disturb the peace of his neighbor.—Palestine Herald.

"If you work for a man," says Elbert Hubbard, "work for him. If he pays you wages that supply your bread and butter, work for him; stand by him; speak well of him; and stand by the institution he represents. If put to the pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness." It is well to add that similar loyalty should be given to the community in which you earn your living. Knocking one's employer is but a shade worse than knocking one's home town.—Madisonville Meteor.

City Schools.

Messrs. Saunders and W. T. James visited the West Side School this week. Some repairs and supplies are needed there, and will be furnished.

The auditorium is seated and in use. We shall be glad to have visitors at the Monday morning openings.

At our last examination, the same fifth grade arithmetic questions used one year ago were given again. Last year some rooms considered them difficult, but this year nearly all pupils did well on them. Indeed fifteen pupils sent in perfect papers, and received grades of 100 each, on that fifth grade arithmetic.

The fifteen pupils are Noah Dansby, Peter Scardino, Carl Wipprecht, Albina Dobrovolny, Johnnie M. Gray, Sarah Powers, Ruby South, Robert Carson, Elbert Gammon, Walter Holmes Joe Spell, Milton Taylor, Cora, Cloud, Pearl Edge, and S. Johnson. Sixteen others made from 90 to 100.

Premium Planter on Exhibition.

Mr. J. A. Myers has received from Dallas an elegant 20th Century Corn and Cotton planter which is to be given as one of the premiums in the Farmers Union Exhibit to be held here in July. The planter is a beauty, gilded in silver and trimmed in small blue stripes. It is on exhibition at Mr. Myers' store.

At Eugene Edge's

Should the ladies of Bryan wish to feast their eyes and satisfy their desire, they should inspect the beautiful line of handsome embroideries, the prettiest ever shown in the city of Bryan at Eugene Edge's on the corner. This popular and progressive merchant can now point with pride to his exceptional purchase of these excellent goods. While in the eastern markets he has ransacked them for something new in design and style in embroideries, and has succeeded well in his desire to give to the ladies of Bryan at a nominal price, the best embroideries that money could buy. It would pay you to inspect this line of goods as the prices range from 5 cents a yard up to $5.00 a yard.

Off to Market.

Sam B. Wilson left at noon yesterday for the big markets North and East to buy goods for the firm of Wilson & Darden. He will purchase not only an up-to-date stock of dry goods, but will bring to Bryan the prettiest line of ladies tailored suits and ready-to-wear goods, ever shown in Bryan.

SOCIAL AND CLUB MATTERS.

Mrs. R. S. Webb entertained the Week End Club on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The beautiful home was most tastefully arranged with fragrant cut flowers and pot plants, and the invited guests joined a most gracious welcome awaiting them as they entered the hall. About forty-two guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of so lovable a hostess. With the kindest smiles of welcome and presenting each one with a score card preparatory for the popular game of six handed forty-two, the guests were seated at the tables. After many games were played Mrs. Webb assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Webb, served a tempting salad course.

Mrs. Jas. O. Chance was the hostess of a very attractive card party Monday afternoon having as honor guests, Mrs. Roger Q. Astin, and Misses Harrison, Heard, Erwin and Dowell of McKinney. When the guests had all arrived the hostess brought out a handsome hand-painted loving cup, and as it was passed among the guests Mrs. J. T. Hanway toasted the bride, Mrs. R. M. Gordon the groom, and Mrs. Jno. Astin the mother. This beautiful and hospitable home was tastefully decorated with ferns and palms, and the clever hostess artfully arranged that no one should fail to enter into the spirit of enjoyment. Four tables of players participated in a game of five hundred and could scarcely believe even their score markers when a lengthy series was concluded. The hostess presented Mrs. Roger Astin with a very handsome hand embroidered center piece. In a cut with the other honor guests Miss Harrison cut high, and received an A. and M. picture. A prettily served refreshment course concluded the pleasures of this afternoon.

Bought in the West.
Mr. T. C. Nunn has bought land in Andrews county, forty-five miles beyond Midland. He was fortunate in securing two sections of splendid school land which had been taken up by another man and after a two-years residence on it, was going to let it go back to the state. Mr. Nunn bought his claim and in one more year will be able to get his deed from the state. He was also fortunate in the fact that his land adjoins that of Mr. Frank Clarke and he will have an old friend for a neighbor. Mr. Nunn is there now putting up a small house on the land and his son Roy will live there until he and Mrs. Nunn and the other boys move out, in case they decide to make their permanent home in the West.

Gone After the Goods.
W. J. Coulter left last night for St. Louis to purchase a spring and summer stock of goods for his store. He goes with the money in his pocket to hunt for bargains and it is needless to say he will find them. A little cash goes a long ways, and its the same with the wholesaler as anybody else. Mr. Coulter knows the needs of his customers and will buy an up-to-date stock, and will give his customers the benefits of the bargains he will be able to secure by paying spot cash.

Choral Club Concert.

A well-filled hall of sympathetic, attentive listeners greeted the Ladies Choral Club last evening at the A. & M. College Auditorium, in the concert given under the auspices of the A. & M. Glee Club. That the concert was a complete success, goes without saying. Those who heard the club in their Bryan concert a few weeks ago, know what a high standard of excellence their work has attained, and in the concert last evening this standard was fully maintained, and if anything, surpassed. Mr. Graham has given his best efforts in the directing of the club, and as a result their work shows a breadth, style and finish not often found in singing societies.

The soloist of the evening were Mrs. W. C. Davis, Miss Lila Vanardo, Mr. Haraldt R. Techau, and Mr. J. Bert Graham. Mrs. Davis always graces any program upon which she appears, and she lost none of her popularity in the selection she gave last evening. Mr. Techau played in his usual inimitable style, and proved to be one of the best features of the program. Mr. Graham's solos were well chosen, and he had the close attention of the audience during their rendition. Miss Lila Vanardo, the club pianist, proved beyond a doubt that she is a soloist as well as accompanist. She has a light, facile touch, and her selections were well rendered.

In response to a request from the A. & M. Glee Club, Miss Hettie Smith sang a beautiful little number, "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond. The request came as a complete surprise to her, as she had not been expecting to sing a solo. The Glee Club is very grateful to her for acceding to their request.

Bryan is to be congratulated on the number of musical artists it contains, and on the excellent choral club which is doing such efficient work under Mr. Graham's training. The A. & M. Glee Club considers itself fortunate in having brought the club to College for a concert. The following is the program:

1. a. Wanderer's Evening Song Rubenstein
b. Dance Song von Weinzierl

A Brilliant Social Event.

On Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. George Samuel Parker gave a brilliant reception and dance naming as honorees Mr. and Mrs. Roger Q. Astin, Misses Beesie Heard, Ida Dowell, Evelyn Erwin and Elizabeth Harrison of McKinney.

The spacious lower floor of the Parker home, so elegantly appointed throughout, was made doubly attractive on this occasion by the artistic touch of a professional decorator. The color tones of red and white were chosen for decoration and the rich coloring so admirably adapted to the furnishings completed a charming picture.

Red and white carnations were vased throughout the rooms—tall brass receptacles held dozens of these fragrant blossoms, and feathery plumosa composed a back ground of green. Over the wide doorways, around cozy nooks, and screening the orchestra alcove, was wrought effective lattice work of red and white ribbon, and fluffy bows of red maline shaded the electroliters. The punch table was confectioned in red and white, and carnations threw their blushing glow into the crystal brew. The young daughter of the home, Miss Dorcas Parker, assisted by Miss Madeline Hanway filled the punch cups during the evening.

The dining room was also in red and white, but in this room only glorious American Beauty roses were used to give the color note. The enter piece for the lace covered table was a large cut glass vase of these Beauties, and red and white maline fell in streamers from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. Red capped candles in crystal spires gave a rose glow, and red and white mints and crystalized strawberries were in the bon bon trays. The mirrored mantle was banked with gorgeous American Beauty buds in their own rich leaves.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker included in their invitation list, not only their married friends, but the young people of the city as well, and the diversions for the evening's pleasure were planned accordingly.

In the dining room cards were enjoyed—in the parlors the dance went merrily on to the sweet music furnished during the entire evening by a stringed orchestra—while all those who preferred a social hour in conversation sought the easy chairs and settees in the library.

The color tones were again emphasized in the refreshment course of nutted charlotte russe with whipped cream and cherries, angel food and salted nuts. More than two hundred guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Parker at this beautiful affair.

Domino Party.

Miss Blanche Buchanan invited the "Stubborn Cinderellas" to be her guests on Saturday from 3 to 5 p. m. at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Buchanan. A charming domino party, with pretty score cards and souvenirs, and a tempting luncheon prettily served in the dining room, was the result. Around the chafing dish the girls chatted merrily, while some of the number who claim proficiency in the culinary art, made delicious "fudge" and "divinity." To be sure the afternoon was thoroughly enjoyable and the girls assured Miss Blanche of this fact, before they said good-bye.

Mrs. J. R. Carleton will entertain the Week End Club Friday afternoon, next, at the home of Mrs. E. J. Fountain.

Mrs. C. A. Adams will entertain the Entre Nous Club, in honor of Mrs. Orren Lewis Stearnes of Virginia, on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 7 o'clock.

An enjoyable "Barn Dance" was given in honor of the Astin house party, at the Elk's club rooms on Wednesday evening.

There will be no meeting of the Bachelor Girls Club this week, but the members are reminded that Miss Alberta Adams will entertain the Club on Wednesday, Feb. 17th, at 3 p. m.

One of the delightful social hours of the week was spent Friday night at the home of Miss Maud Nicol, when she entertained the members of the Woodmen Circle and the Woodmen of the World. A spirited game of forty-two was greatly enjoyed by those present, and at an appropriate hour chocolate and cake were served.

Mrs. A. M. Kennedy, wife of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, received in the suite of the Speaker Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 6. Mrs. Kennedy paid Mrs. W. C. Davis of this city, who was visiting in Austin at the time a pretty compliment in selecting her as one of the five ladies who assisted in receiving. The affair was given to the wives of the members, the attaches and members of the press club.

The Baptist Young Peoples Union gave a "height party" Friday evening at the Texas Woman's College. Quite a large crowd was present and all spent a most delightful evening. Delicious refreshments were served. A candy booth and fortune teller tent were provided, which were visited many times during the evening by the young people. The entertainment proved profitable and quite a nice sum was added to the fund of this society.

Mrs. Tyler Haswell entertained at a charming and attractive card party Thursday afternoon for the members of the Entre Nous Club. The pretty home was bright and lovely with quantities of red and white carnations. Five hundred was enjoyed in a delightful progressive game, and every guest enjoyed the hour, which was so beautifully planned by the hostess. Pretty score cards, dainty favors and a prize, added charm to the hour, which was full of the genuine delight with which Mrs. Haswell always charges her social compliments. The prize, a cut glass dish, was won by Mrs. Lay of College. When the games were over, cards were removed from the tables and replaced by a tempting lunch of

RIEDLING PIANOS

In this territory, and to do so successfully and get them in the homes of the people, we are going to reduce the regular retail price to Absolute Factory Prices in this sale.

Never in the history of Texas will the people of Bryan have the opportunity of buying a strictly high grade Piano at Factory Prices and if you ever expect to own a Piano, NOW is your chance to buy it. You cannot afford to miss this grand opportunity. Remember, you take no chance whatever when you buy a Riedling Piano, as they are strictly high grade in every respect, and are thoroughly guaranteed 10 years in your own home. This guarantee is unquestionably good, and any bank in the U. S. will tell you so. Why can we afford to sell you a piano at factory cost? Because we want to build up a large trade on the Riedling Piano, and to do so we must advertise, and from years of experience we have learned that the pleased customer is always the best advertisement. We cordially invite you to attend this great sale. Call and examine the Riedling Piano and convince yourself of the big values we are offering. We will have plenty of good music, and you are welcome whether you buy or not.

This Sale will commence at once and last a few days only, and remember the factory prices apply only to this sale, after which they will resume their regular fixed retail prices.

These pianos will be sold through the dealer, Mr. Jno. L. McNutt, and are guaranteed both by the factory and dealer. All pianos will be kept in tune free for one year.

This sale will be conducted by the Factory's representative, Mr. Dee Armstrong, assisted by our dealer, Mr. Jno. L. McNutt. Location of store, Buchanan-Moore Co., Bryan, Tex.

Mrs. H. G. Rhodes was hostess to the Embroidery Club this week, and that is an assurance that the meeting was a pleasant one. Mrs. Rhodes always knows how to entertain her friends and this afternoon was only a repetition of many other delightful afternoons spent with her. It was a merry crowd present, all bringing their sewing and spending the time with pleasant conversation. Mrs. Rhodes served delicious refreshments consisting of nut gelatin and cake. Those present besides the members were Mesdames Ed Hall, Sterne, R. Q. Astin, Albert Rhodes, Seay, Misses Heard, Dowell, Erwin and Harrison.

One of the delightful hospitalities of the week was the domino party given on Wednesday afternoon by Miss Emily Thomas complimentary to the Bachelor Girls Club. Miss Thomas is known as an ideal hostess and this pretty club party was but another link in a chain of successes to her credit. Tables were placed in the dainty parlor for the game of forty-two. The heart shaped score cards were hand-painted—the work of the hostess—the design being dainty cupids done in gold. For each game won a pretty gilded arrow was tied on with a pink ribbon. Each guest felt as if she had won a prize when given one of these score cards. The dainty refreshment plate was equally as pretty, the heart design carried out in the cream and cake, and pink and white mints. Miss Thomas is always so gracious and hospitable that her friends delight to be honored with an invitation to her parties.

The ladies of St. Andrews' Guild have arranged a most unique and delightful Valentine entertainment, to be given on the evening of Feb. 12th, at the home of Mrs. F. I. Garth. There will be music—telling your fortunes in shadows—all kinds of games appropriate to St. Valentine's day and refreshments will also be served. A most cordial invitation to everybody—old, middle-aged and young, and a jolly good time is promised. Admission 15 cents or two for 25 cents.
